Green Mountain Builders has just announced the completion of a luxury remodel at the award-winning community of Audubon, in Naples, Florida. Walls were removed and the kitchen space was expanded, opening up this gorgeous space, allowing natural light to stream through. The open plan thus provides a more efficient and functional kitchen space.

Tony Persichilli, owner of Green Mountain Builders, a licensed building contractor and who is currently celebrating thirty years of building in Southwest Florida, has formed a group of highly qualified experts to design and build every project. "We bring to every job, the most creative professionals in their respective fields to work together as a team. Our goal is to meet the homeowner's current lifestyle and needs," states Persichilli.

Audubon Country Club is one of only 800 communities in the entire world that have the honor of being a Certified Audubon Sanctuary. Consisting of 755 acres, Audubon Country Club has one of the lowest home density per acreage in all of Naples. This enables members to enjoy the magnificent beautiful, distinctive setting. Audubon is home to a splendid Joe Lee designed eighteen hole Championship Golf Course. The course is notable for challenging for the best golfers, yet fun for those of lesser skill levels. The 35,000 square foot clubhouse includes a fitness center with an aerobics room, plus elegant and casual dining. For tennis enthusiasts there are eight Har-tru tennis courts and a tennis shop.

Many estate homes within Audubon that have now aged over twenty-five years are going through the remodeling and makeover process which updates both indoor and outdoor spaces. The remodels typically open up interior spaces, require new and updated kitchens, living and dining spaces, plus bedrooms, bathrooms and various other interior upgrades and improvements.

The transitional-inspired makeover of this kitchen transforms a tired, less than functional space into a dream kitchen. This gorgeous remodel is a beautiful example of the artistry and craftsmanship of the Green Mountain Builders' artisans. It includes a masterful blend of colors, textures and finishes. White shaker-style perimeter cabinets are contrasted with the blue and white mid-island cabinets. The kitchen also features sumptuous natural stone countertops, adorned with the blue-patterned highlights. The blue theme is also displayed by the spectacular herring-bone design of the backsplash that in addition features open display shelves which are perfect for the homeowners' favorite decorative pieces.

The remodel also includes upgraded finishes and fixtures, plus new stainless appliances. The island is a massive focal point of the kitchen, with comfortable seating for four. The old tile flooring has been replaced with wide plank wood floors giving the kitchen a much lighter feeling. The kitchen also features transom window lighting and designer pendant lights over the island.

Additional seating along the large peninsula provides not only four more seats, but ample prep space as well.
